ACCREDITATION ACTIONS

Semi-Annual Council Meeting
July 15-17, 2011

The Council on Chiropractic Education (CCE) is the agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education (USDE) for accreditation of programs and institutions offering the Doctor of Chiropractic (DC) degree. CCE seeks to ensure the quality of chiropractic education in the United States by means of accreditation, educational improvement and public information. CCE develops accreditation criteria to assess how effectively programs or institutions plan, implement and evaluate their mission and goals, program objectives, inputs, resources and outcomes of their chiropractic programs. The CCE is also recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) and is a member of the Association of Specialized and Professional Accreditors (ASPA).

In accordance with USDE and CHEA requirements, the following are the accreditation actions taken by the Council at its Semi-Annual Meeting.
