United States Department of Education Recognition of CCE

CCE has received formal notice that the United States Secretary of Education has granted continued recognition as a nationally recognized accrediting agency for the accreditation of programs leading to the Doctor of Chiropractic degree, and single-purpose institutions offering the Doctor of Chiropractic degree program, for a period of five years through December 2011. The notification also notes an interim report due in June 2007 demonstrating full compliance with the Secretary's Criteria for Recognition.
