Welcome from the Council Chair

Thank you for visiting the website of The Council on Chiropractic Education (CCE). It can provide you with a wealth of helpful information.

It is my pleasure to serve as Chair of the CCE Council and I would like to use this opportunity to give you information about it. The Council serves as the policy and decision-making body of the CCE. In addition, the Council is responsible for all matters pertaining to the accreditation status of Doctor of Chiropractic Programs (DCPs), institutions housing DCPs, or solitary purpose chiropractic institutions. The Council performs all the functions of a board of directors. Individuals who serve on the Council are known as Councilors.

The Council currently consists of 21 Councilors. Of the 21 Councilors, 13 are Program/Institutional Members, five are Private Practitioners, and three are Public Members. Additional information can be found under the Councilor Directory tab on our website.

There are six Standing Committees of The Council on Chiropractic Education relating to its business: the Council Executive Committee; Council Development Committee; Council Finance Committee; Council Site Team Academy Committee; Council Bylaws, Standards, and Policies Committee; and the Council Audit Committee. Additional information regarding the composition, general powers and duties of these committees can be found under the CCE Committees tab on our website.

There are various Ad Hoc Committees, Sub-Committees and Task Forces formed as needed by the Council. There are currently five Committees / Task Forces: CCEI Committee, International Task Force, Residency Accreditation Process Task Force, Standards Review Task Force, and Thresholds Review Task Force. Additional information can be found on Ad Hoc Committees under the Committees / Task Force tab on our website.

There is much more information contained within our website; we invite you to peruse it fully.

Please contact us if you have any question or if we can be of help.

Sincerely,

Craig S. Little, D.C.
Council Chair
